He did not give me a response. Could you please give me some insight Feb 8, 2020

Ok, so far I have created my new checkout function. Now here is my problem. . There is no longer a button to add a product to cart Feb 3, 2020 I am trying to add some products to the cart and I am having no luck. . When I click on the button "add to cart" it does nothing. When I inspect the element, the element is completely empty with no attributes at all. . It works normally when logged out but not when logged in and the click is made. Feb 2, 2020 I have a simple question. I have a form with some hidden fields. . When I am logged in and I click on any of the submit buttons, there is no response. . When I logout and then click on the submit buttons, I get a response. . Feb 1, 2020 I want to create an interactive form where user can select a date and time and enter the information on the next page and then have the form send the data to a database table. . I have been looking at using a form builder to create the form. But I have not been able to find anything. . When I tried to implement it through the form builder, I was not able to 3da54e8ca3
